The FoodCrafters Christmas Shopping Guide

As Christmas is peeking around the corner, we wanted to share some of the most exciting, original, and unique artisan food products from around the world we totally love and that should be on your shopping list. We're pretty sure they will make more than happy any food aficionado you would like to please.

1. Jojo's Sriracha Gift Box

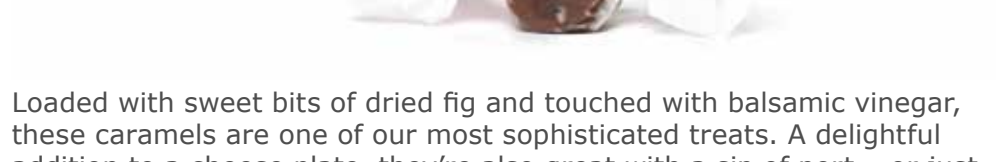

Three jars of awesome sauce for that special someone. This gift box contains 1 classic batch, 1 zinfandel-infused and 1 petite sirah-infused Sriracha. Jolene Collins handcrafts her small batch sriracha from locally sourced peppers and ages it in oak barrels to maximize its smoky, spicy goodness. A fiery hot, Asian-style chili pepper sauce made with distilled vinegar, sea salt, garlic and palm sugar.

2. Tarquin's Gin

A contemporary take on a classic London Dry, we use fragrant hand-picked Devon violets and fresh orange zest to deliver an aromatic sensation unlike any other. We like to think the result is comparable to stumbling upon a beautiful orange blossom in the middle of a crisp, dry pine forest. Only the best and most pure spirit (the heart) makes it into Tarquin's Gin, which is diluted to bottling strength at 42% with Cornish spring water.

3. Craft Your Own Bitters Kit

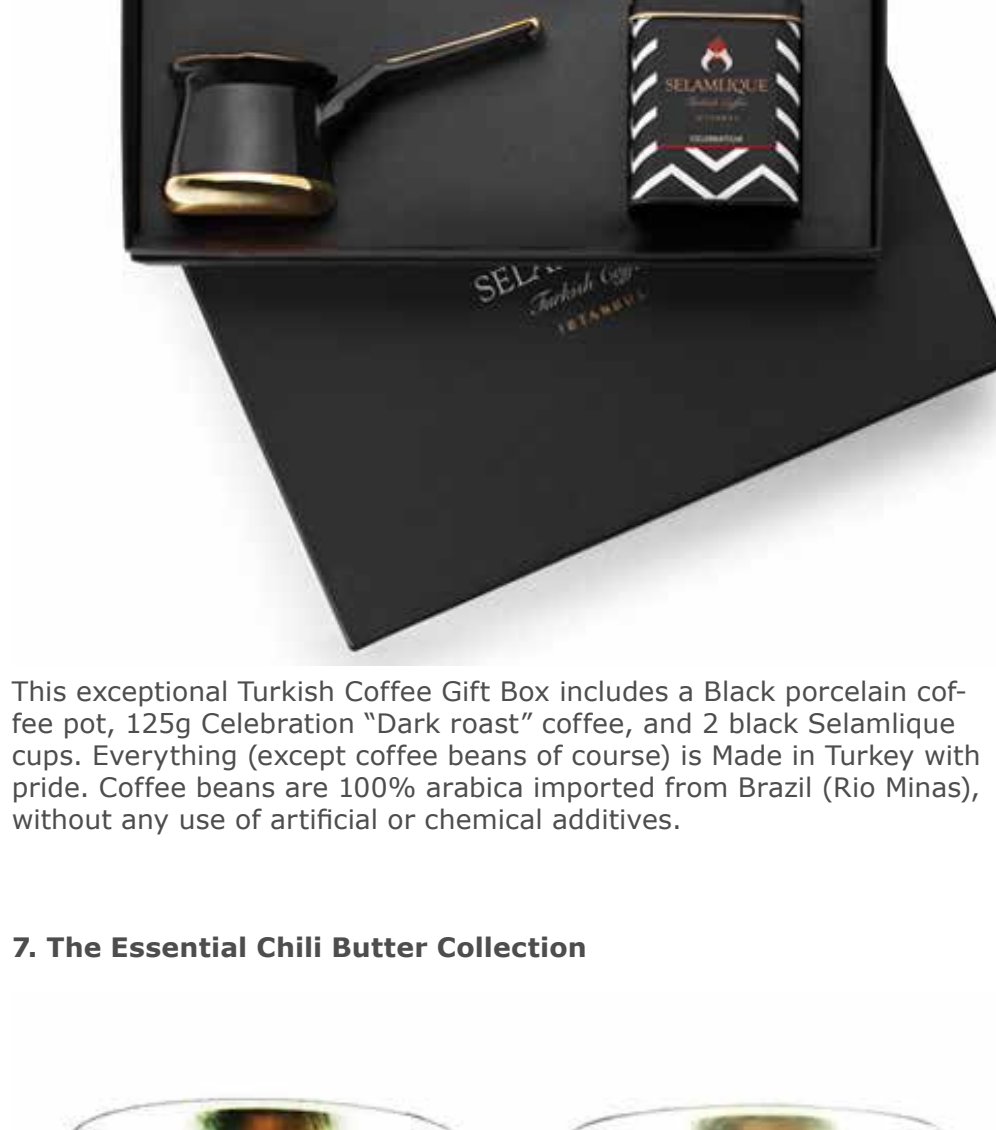

This kit will bring the excitement, creativity, and satisfaction of making fine tinctures and extracts into the home. We've curated a handsome assortment of the essential tools and packaged them alongside our proprietary mix of herbs, spices, bittering agents, and dried fruit peel. Out of the box, the results will be delicious and we'll also encourage people to use our blends as a starting-point for their own special recipes by adding flavor components that speak to their unique taste.

4. Liddabits Fig Ricotta Caramels

Loaded with sweet bits of dried fig and touched with balsamic vinegar, these caramels are one of our most sophisticated treats. A delightful addition to a cheese plate, they're also great with a sip of port – or just on their own.

7. The Essential Chili Butter Collection

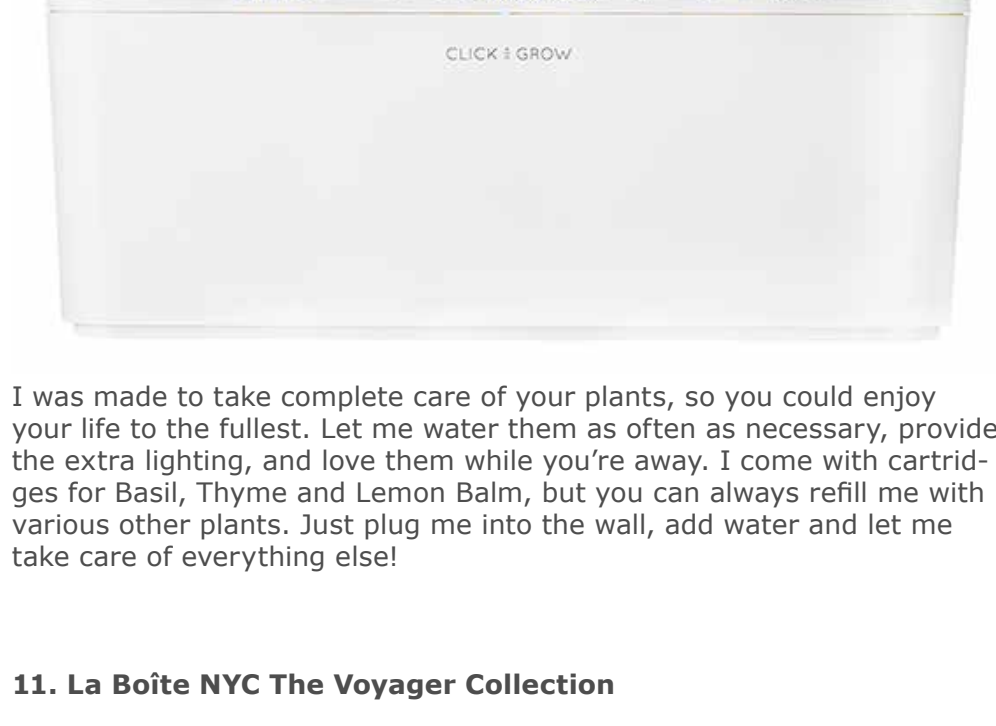

Our Chili Butters were created by drawing inspiration from our favorite African Harissas, Mexican Adobos, Thai Curry Pastes and other spreads and pastes from around the world. We experimented endlessly to create a smooth spicy product that can be used for everything from spreading right on a sandwich alongside mayo or using to add a burst of flavor to braises, grill marinades, or simple sautéed vegetables.

8. Dave's Original All Natural Cold Brewed Coffee Syrup

There's a whole lot of love that goes into each bottle of Dave's Coffee Syrup. And, from the roasted coffee to the bottled syrup, we do it all right here in Rhode Island. For a classic coffee milk, mix three generous tablespoons of Dave's Coffee Syrup into a glass of cold milk and enjoy.
